In an animated discussion some year or two ago at a called meeting of the Stockholders I endorsed him then, as a gentleman, that he was an hones zeslous and an energetic man, worthy of all trust and confidence. And up to the hour of his death, I have had no cause to change my views of of the Character of the man. It is true he was but a short time your President, baying been elected on the 18th October, on the resignation of Dr. W. J. At the time of his death he was President of your road, President of the National Bank of Portsmouth, vestryman of a church in Portsmouth and officially connected with many other civil institutions and societies and I have yet to learn that in the discharge of his many official positions of trust and honor he was ever found wanting. Providence seemed to have favored the man who manifested so much energy, enterprise and vim. One of his principal characteristics was kindness and sympathy, especially to the widows and orphans and the helpless. The morning of his death he appeared to be in the enjoyment of good health. He attended a nuptial ceremony at Christ Church, in this city, and on leaving the church we shook hands for a temporary good bye, as we supposed, and less did I expect to hear in less than twenty-four hours that George W. orice was no more. He was permitted by a kind Providence to breathe his last at his home, amid his family circle, attended with all the car- and skill of the best physicians in Portsmouth. Thus ended the life of G.o. Building and Loan Associations Sh gld Be Reformed, Not Wound Up : TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS :-

The decision of the Supreme County the case of the Salisbury Building Loan Association, points out sed these useful Institutions organized under the general statutes of the State, which should be at once remedied. The most serious objection to contracts made with Building and Loan Associations has always consistents. ted in their indefiniteness. If a borrower wished at any time to pay his debt and clear his property lien prior to the expiration of the Association, it required a complicated calculation to ascertain the amount due. The stock. The borrower may te required to pledge his stock as security in part for his loan in addition to giving a mortgage as real estate, but it should not be considered or so entered as redeemed or cancelled. The payments known as "dues," are strictly installments on the stock, and the stock should be accumulated by the payment of these instalments and the total profits, until it reaches the par yalue, when it may be taken by the Association in payment of the sum borrowed. There seems to be no serious difficulty in conforming the mode of business to the ideas of the court as expressed in this decision. The contracts should be definite and plain, the sale of interest on lands eight per cent. per annum on the precise sum advanced, and the borrower should have the right o anticipating the payment of his debt if he chose to do so. So far as the fines and penalties go, the court decides that in the case under consideration, the contract was uplawful, and consequently the fines and and penalties became also unlawful. Fines for non payment of instalments on stock are within the power of the Association to enforce through its by laws; for if payments be omitted for any length of time, the Association wou'd claim the right to see the stock and place it in new hands. Failure to pay interest on the debt would certainly lead to the sale of both stock and property, or so much as was fleces-sary to repay the loan. The proper rule for all associations for mutural benefit is, if a member fails to comply with its rules, or he becomes disand let him go, and the sooner the better for the Association. With all due respect to the Su-

Building and Leau Tistinged that

not creatures of oppression to be "pipped in the bua" and crushed out; on the contrary that the declared object of the statute, to encourage the requisition of homesteads by persons of small means, is more ccessfully are implished by this instrumentality than any other now in operation here. His Honor, Judge Reade, in commenting upon the monthly payment, confuses the subject greatly by calling it all interest, taking no account of the fact that the monthly payment of nineteen per cent. per annum, or about one and a half per cent per month, paid the current interest and extinguished the principal also. In the next paragraph he seems to recognize this fact by admitting that the actual rate of interest paid in the case under consideration, was ten and a half per cent. per annum Of course the difference of eight and a half per cent. was applied to the payment of the principal of the debt. Now cons der ng the current rates for money in the National banks, the rate of ten and a half per cent, cannot be regarded as an oppressive one especially as the borrower was priviliged to reduce his principal by the payment of about two-thirds of one per cent. monthly. An individual could not afford to lend money on such terms, receiving his principal in such small payments; nothing but an association, receiving monthly a large number of small sums could afford to give such privileges. The county in ruling the forms of contract in use by these associations as un'awful, was scarcely justified in pronouncing them vicious Institutions, to be put down by its solemn sentence. In the cases before the court, it is the borrower who has the advantage of the situation and of his fellow members. He has obtained the money of the association and then secures through the court, release from his illegal contract. It is obvious that these Institutions should adopt better methods of business than have her tofore prevailed with them. The provisions of these contracts in many cases, seem crude and ment on. It is hoped that they will not succumb to the apparent hostility of the Supreme Court, but that they will revise their modes of business, have their contracts syssemized and removed where found defective, and go on in the good works they have in hand.

Johnston County Safe.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS :-I understand it has gone abroad that old Elevation Township is or will go over to the Radical or negro party. I am prepared to contradict it-it is talse, all our fellow citizens are awake, and firm as a rock, and will roll up a Democratic majority of over 200 in November. We won't lose our vote, but will gain many. Old Johnston is safe and cannot be driven by Radicals and scalawags. Yours truly,

THE HAMBURG AFFAIR.-The bloody fight at Hamburg, S. C., on July the 4th, occupies the attention of the press of the country quite as much as the Custer massacre. The Republicans, who worship the Bloody Shirt are making all the political capital of it possible.

JOHNSTON COUNTY .- A correspondeat writes us that "old Johnston is safe, and cannot be driven by Radicals and scalawags." Billy Smith's influence in Johnston is over-estimated. It was the anti Convention sentiment, not the Horn-Blower, that lost us that county last year.

gance and corruption have run riot in this country under Radical misrule. The cure for these twin evils is the election of both honest and stingy men to office. When the people's money is in question, give us stingy men-men who'll not only stop bung-hole leakage, but gimlethole as well.

WHY THE DIFFERENCE?-The new Constitution of Alabama was carried by fifty thousand majority. By what majority will we carry the amendments to the Constitution under which we live? A abama has a white majority of eight thousand at the polls. North Carolina has a white majority at the pol's of sixty-one thousand. And yet-well we won't POLITICAL INFORMATION .- As well said by the Reanoke News, "the influence of newspapers in political campaigns cannot be over estimated, and those who have the good cause at heart cannot better devote their time and means than by disseminating re liable news through the medium of a popular newspaper." In furtherance of the idea here suggested, we invite correspondence from any county in North Carolina upon subjects connected with the present canvass, as well as general news matter. To such correspondents as will undertake to furnish us regularly with such information we will supply copies of the NEWS during the camTHE VOICE OF SLANDER.

In the New York Tribune of the 5th instant there appears a letter upon the subject of the "North Carolina Candidates," from an occasional correspondent at Washington. It is filed with repetitions of the slanders which the radicals are so industriously circulating here and abroad, in order to injure Governor Vance in his candidacy for the Chi.f Magistrate's chair of this State.

It is intimated that Governor Vance was nominated by the "leaders." The leaders, it is true, were generally for him; but his nomination was no put-np job. He was the choice of an overwhelming majority of the people. It was a great ground swell of popular sentiment that placed him in the honored po sition which he now holds as our champion and standard-bearer, and not the leaders. It was the man and the hour meeting.

This letter asserts that Governor Vance "became a convert to the extreme views and purposes of the secessionists." As War Governor of North Carolina he did his duty honestly, courageously, humanely. That is all. Patriotism demanded such devotion; and as a loving, dutiful son of the Old North State, he gave it. He gave it with an earnestness and an energy characteristic of whole-souled men, and did not back out when the fun set in well, as his rival candidate did.

The statement that Governor Vance was a furious "fire eater" is about as true as it would be to say of Captain Settle that he was a lover of peace, or a good Union man, or a friend of the Quakers and the Moravians.

Fault is found with Governor Vance because he "does not love the Yankeer," and in his lecture on the Hebrew race told jokes on the New Englanders. Governor Hayes does not "love the Rebels." Is that a reason why he should not be re-elected Governor of Ohio-after he shall have been defeated for the Presidency? The Yankees themselves have never found fault with that lecture. It has been delivered with applause north of Mason and Dix-"love the Yankees" if Tom Settle would bring down from Cape Cod, or Buzzard's Bay, for Vance to see some better specimens of Yanks than escis will nominated ignorance in the remark that the bolters who voted for Senator Merrimon in 1872 were "representatives of the mountain counties." Only a portion of the bolters were from the mountains. There were several from other parts of the State, prominent among whom was Humphrey, now a full-fledged radical.

It is not true, as intimated, that Governor Vance has declined to meet Judge Settle in this campaign. He very properly refused to divide time with him at the speaking here the other day. But it is his purpose to meet Captain Settle on the stump many times betwixt this and November. Nothing would suit our champion or his friends better than to have him engage in an open encounter in the field with the valiant ex-Confederate Captain ..

But the grossest of all the misstatements contained in the Tribune letter are those embodied in the following language: "While he was Governor he scrupled at no violence that was necessary to force the skulkers and deserters into the Confederate service. Shocking stories of cruelty practiced by his order upon these classes are told-one of them to the effect that his subordinates, with his approbation, put women to the torture, in order to make them divulge the hiding places of their husbands."

The writer of this shows great ignorance of the train of the matter; or else, he has been the roughly deceived by the voice of slander. No cruelties were "practiced by his (Vance's) order,"or"with his ap; robation." We defy republicans to produce proof of this charge. They know as well as we do that if cruelties were practised they were not done by order of Governor Vance, and were not countenanced by him; and that all their statements to the effect that | platform the best he had ever read. It Vance was guil'y of inhumanity towards deserters, and that he tortured women, are deliberate, wilful, malicious misrepresentations made for political effect. These mendacious stories are repeated so often and so gravely by designing radicals that the slanderers themselves are likely to begin to believe them.

"Like one Who baving unto truth, by tell ng of it, Made such a sinner of his memory. To credit his own ite."

HON. WILLIAM A. SMITH.

The opinion of an outsider is someimes of value. It is presumed that a mere looker on at a contest is unbiased, and likely to express his convictions wi hout passion or prejud ce. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, witting from Washington, touches upon the canvass and the candidates in this State. He has

He is an active tic partisan, and would make an able ward manager in New York. e is understood to have a strong affinity Rings, and as a railroad president he acquired a notoriety which will be o service to the Republican party. Your Horn-Billy-the mighty hunter of Princeton. It presents him in mere outline but quite distinct'y and accurately. To fill out this rough draft would require volumes. It would require the services of one horoughly acquainted with his record-his tricks and turnings, his hedgings and hunting, his achievements er's foot had rest. A history of this Confederate Nimrod would be wearisome from its length. For he is not a spring chicken. The b'oom and the freshness of innocence does not rest upon his cheek as upon the hand-ome, smooth-faced Settle. On the contrary, his complexion has been tanned in his hunts after those who did not want to le soldiers; and "early piety," as they say, has silvered his hair. He is an "old coon;" and the slyness of the fox is lamb-like artlessness, compared to his cunning. Muca might to said of the Honorab'e William A. Smith, to illus rate and amplify what the Tribune correspondent has written. And doubt. less will be during the campaign. To describe his record fully is a task that must deter the most industrious jourpalist. As well might one undertake to follow the trail of the willest Reynard without dogs, or the track of the deserter without bloodhounds. The secret twistings and turnings of the Horn-Blower slong the ways of life are among those things that are almost past finding out. RESULTS OF REPUBLICAN RULE. Gov. Watts, of Alabama, said in a recent speech, that the debt of that State, when the Radicals came into power, was eight millions of dollars, on's line. Governor Vance might | and the taxaable property six hundred millions.

In 1874, when they were put out of office, the debt was increased to $32,-000,000, and the taxable property re-

That was the work of carpet-bag and scalaway thieves. Don't say This correspondent displays sad | this is "flinging mud" at the native Republicans and the Northern adventurers. It is not throwing dirt to say a thief is a thief, any more than to call "a spade a spade."

> RADICAL JUSTICES .- Two men charged with breaking into a store in Favetteville and sealing several thousand dollars worth of goods, were bailed by the Radical magistrates who tried them, in the trifling sum of one hundred dollars each. This is a very small bail, and if the prisoners do not make themselves small about Fayetteville it will be because they prefer a trial to giving leg bail. Not among the evils of Radicalism is the favor that is shown law-breakers by Republican Justices.

> THE SPIRIT OF LAWLESSNESS .-The story told by Col. Stephenson about negro runners going through this county calling upon negroes to come in to Raleigh day before yesterday, to assist in wreating the City Government from the present authorities, shows what a desperate spirit of lawlessness prevai's among the wick, ed leaders of the colored race. It is such a spirit as this that lead to the conflict in Tartoro, and will whenever it shows itself produce blood-SMITH AND McLINDSEY .- A Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune reviews the political fie'd of this State, and concludes as follows : 'On the whole. the Republicans ought to win; but will they? I fear not: for besides shouldering the re-ponsibility of defending Mr. Smith's railroad management, they have nominated in the first district, as I learn, a man with an exceedingly bad record."

HATRED OF THE WHITES

and a desire to precipitate a war of the races. This was the sole motive that actuated them. Moore, the policen an who arrested Lane the colored man who fought on the streets, was a white man and they were detern ined that a white man shouldn't arrest a negro peace breaker. Christmas, the colored chief marshal, bote the tidings to the crowd that a white man was attempting to ARREST A NEGRO, RALLY TO THE RESCUE. This brought out the slumbering venom, the undying hatred inherent in the colored breast against the

Some of the most respectable colored men told Mr. Pippen, a Justice | be invited to submit plans for the of the Peace, who was trying to quell he riot, that they could manage it the white officers were sent away. Pip; en replied "I'm a magistrate."; A colored man who was standing near said, 'we don't care for law. This is our day."

The white people of Tarboro are the most law abiding people in the In no other place could 1,000 turbelent black men override justice and take posses-ion of the law. They took advantage of the absence of the white men who were in a great measure spending the Fourth in the country, and the few present were absolutely unarmed.

LET WESTERN MEN LOOK

at this picture shown up from a negro redden county in the Good Old North State, and come to our rescue. Give us the Amendments and we will be able to take care of Torches, &c. ourseives. Try, white men of the West to put your-elves in our place If one of your counties had 3,000 colored majority it would be the same as with us.

Think we would desert you? The Sheriff of the county of Edgecomb, with the body of the county, certainly the whites, confesses that he is powerless to put down a mob running riot with the law.

Captain Settle.

It is curious and amusing to note Low the papers in Mr. Hayes's inteest have discovered Captian John Settle, of North Carolina to be a man of dis ingu shed ability; and if we did not know their anxiety to produce the impression that he really is a man of consequence we should suspect them of the broadest irony. Captain Settle has not impressed himself upon the people of Carolina as a person of any great worth, or distinction. He serve ta part of the time in the Confederate Army, and at an early day went into the ranks of the party where the leaves and fishes were to be served out Elevated to the Bench, as a political Judge, his name has been connected with t an-actions only cdious to the people of the Old State, and it is sheer nonsence to talk either of his ability, or his popularity. He has neither the one, nor the other, and his place in the run against Vance will be rather that of a speciator of the fun than a competitor in the race.-Norfolk Landmak

A Clairvoyant's Prediction.

[N. Y. Herald.] To your correspondent's certain knowledge a Dr. Thomas, clairvoyant physician of Minneapolis, three years ago, while in a trance, gave a fair sketch of Custer's battle ground and foretold the masacre of the entire party at that point, and giving a corlect idea of the sorrow throughout the land following. This circumstance was recall d by an officer of Terry's command yesterday, to whom the proptie y was related at the time of Custer's Black Hills expedition, in the presence of your correspon-

Indian Sorrow for Custer. The Rees at Fort Lincoln mourned several days over Custer's death cutting themselves with knives and exhibiting genuine sorrow in other ways peculiar to the Indian. One refused to mourn and in the wildest manner called on Custer's spirit to drive the Fibux from the land, and insisted that his brave band would do

A $200,000 HOTEL.

What Dr. Pierce is Doing -- An Important Enterprise. We learn that Dr. R. V. Pierce, proprietor of the "World's Dispensary," in this city, has perfected the pruchase of a large lot of land, on which he proposes to erect a large hotel for the accommodation of his numerous patients coming hither from all points of the compass. The land purchased by the enterprising Doctor is 234 feet front on Prospect Avenue, running through to Fargo Avenue, 332 feet; also an adjoining lot extending from the above to Connecticut Street. It is in the midst of our extensive system of public parks, fronts the old and beautiful Prospect Park, is but a short distance from the "Circ'e" in one direction, and the "Lake Front" in the other. The site selected is a fine one, being both beautiful and healthful; is one of the highest portions of our city, easily accessible, yet sufficiently retired to secure quiet, and commands a pleasant view of the lake and river, as well as of the surrounding city and country. We unders and that it is the intention of Dr. Pierce to erect a hotel at the cost of at least two hundred thousand dollars, where these who come to enjoy the tenefit of his treatment may find all desired accommodations under one roof, instead of being scattered over the cty as at present. We are further given to understand that our architects will proposed structure without delay .-Buffalo Express.

Senator Ransom in Philadelphia. Among the speakers at the recent great Tilden and Hendricks ratifica-tion meeting in Philadelphia, was Senator Ransom of North Carolina. The Times gives the following abstract of his speech: He said it gave him a pleasure he could not express to address his hearers as fellow citizens of a common country. He could not express his emotion as a son of North Carolina looking in the faces of his fellowcitizens of Pennsylvania and feeling they were friends and brothers of a common country and a common flag. He came here as a man, declaring be ore God and man that his devotion to our common country was as sin-cere as that of any man who breathes. He came to ask to let him join in restoring the government. Why should be not love the country? It was true he bore arms for the South. He did it in broad daylight, but when the flag was furled at Appomattox he meant, and so did his people, to stand by a united country to the end. For two hundred years North and South stood together, and, because there was a civil strife of four years, should that weigh against two hundred years of brotherhood. This was the sentiment of every man South of the Potomac. He paid a glowing tribute to the American flag, and said it hurta Southern man to think the North does not understand him. The war is over and its dead buried, and not all the crueity of the Republican party can drive the South from its devotion to the Union. He alluded to the troop p'aced in the South at and since the close of the war, and the placing of four millions of negroes over thir een mi lion whites. When this was done the South was crippled and broken down, and every interest prostrated Can the North allow and afford the great territory of the South to be cut off and made barren? The South was entitled to be forgiven, and not to be trodden down and ruled by black people wihout patriotism, ability, or intelligence. In conclusion, he said that all the South asks is the government by the Constitution, and it will stand by the Constitution forever. Gov. Vance's Appointments.

Appetite a Necessity.—Appetite is a necessity. Without it, sufficient food is not received into the stomach either to nourish the system or to give the stimulus to the bowels which they require. Both these organs and the liver become tor, id in coose quence, and the blood grows poor in quality and quistify. Improve the appetite, therefore, and avoid such results. This is most effectually done with Host tter's Stomach Bitters, a tonic appetizer and alteramost effectually done with Host ther's Sto-mach Bitters, a tonic appetizer and "ltera-tive without per It gives not only an unwonted zest for food, but enables the sto-mach to digest and the syst m to assimilate it Flatmience, heartburn nausea, a d-every other concomitant of indigestion, are removed by it, as are also biliousness and co-stipation. TO BUSINESS MEN. A good advertisement in a widely circulated newspaper is the best of all possible salesmen. It is a salesman who never sleeps salesmen. It is a salesman who never sleeps and is never wearry; who goes after business early and late; who accosts the merchant in his store, the scholar in his study the lawver in his office, the lady in her home, the traveler in the car or boat, a salesman who no purchaser can avoid, who can be in a thousand places at once and speak to thousands of people daily E saying to each one the best thing in the best manner. A good advertisement insures a business connection on the nost permanent and independent basis. and is in a certain sense, a guarantee to the customer of fair and moderate prices Experience has shown that the dealer, whose wares have obtained a public gelebrity, ds not only enabled to sell, but is forced to sell at reasonable rales, and to furnish a good article. A dealer can make no better investment than in the advertising columns of a widely circulated newspaper. Such is the opinion of a man who is known to be the largest advertiser in the United States
